

PRESIDENT MARSHALL E. McCLAIN

Marshall McClain is a police officer and current President of the Los Angeles Airport Peace Officers' Association (LAAPOA) a non-profit organization in Los Angeles, California. LAAPOA represents the rank and file police and fire fighters sworn to protect all of the city's owned airports including Los Angeles International Airport (LAX). Officer McClain joined the Los Angeles Airport Police in 2002 after previously working as a Park Patrol Officer for the Los Angeles City Park Rangers. Prior to working for the city of Los Angeles; Officer McClain graduated from the Rio Hondo Regional Police Academy in 1996, then worked as a Park Ranger for Burbank Police Department. After high school he enlisted to serve his country with the US Army during Operation Desert Storm and was honorably discharged in 1990. Over his past 17 year law enforcement career, his assignments have included Patrol Services Section as a Field Training Officer and selected to the Office of Intelligence and Emergency Operations as a Canine Handler. Officer McClain, is the rank of Police Officer III and assigned as a Senior Lead Officer to the Patrol Services Section at LAX. He is the Co-Founder of the American Alliance of Airport Police Officers, an affiliation of airport police officers across the nation. He serves on the board of directors for the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC), the largest statewide public safety association with over 64,000 members. He currently resides in Los Angeles County with his wife and their two daughters. He remains active in the community and enjoys coaching youth and high school football and volunteering at his children's school and church.