

PORTMIAMI™

Frederick P. Wong, Jr. Deputy Director

Deputy Wong oversees PortMiami's Cruise and Cargo Operations, Vessel Berthing Office, Housekeeping, and Facilities Maintenance, which includes passenger loading bridges and the gantry crews. His purview also includes Port Permits, Safety and Security, to include the Miami-Dade Police Sheriff Department, and PD's Marine Patrol. He also serves as the Chairman of the Crane Management Board which is responsible for PortMiami's STS Cranes. He is also integrally involved with the port's major initiatives to include the cargo terminal's e-RTG's (Electric Rubber Tired Gantry's), wharf strengthening and electrification, yard densification, and future cruise shore-power efforts.

Deputy Wong has over 28 years of experience in all facets of port operations and previously served almost 5 years as JAXPORT's Chief Operating Officer. Before heading to NE Florida, he left PortMiami as the Assistant Port Director of Operations, responsible for all cruise, cargo, and security operations.

Mr. Wong holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with concentrations in Management and Marketing from Florida Atlantic University. He holds a Professional Port Manager Certification (PPM) from AAPA and he is also a graduate of Leadership Florida Cornerstone Class 39.
