2019 LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

Anthony M. Reardon
NTEU National President

Anthony M. Reardon (Tony) is the National President of the National Treasury Employees Union. As the union's top elected official, he is the spokesman for the union and represents NTEU with the media, Congress and agency leadership on issues of importance to union members and federal employees. He leads NTEU's efforts to ensure dignity and respect for all federal workers.

Reardon is committed to working with NTEU chapter leaders and members to construct a shared vision for NTEU's future, one that prepares the union to meet the challenges ahead. He believes strongly that federal employees deserve fair pay and a secure retirement and has fought to give them the tools and resources they need to do their jobs.

Since his 2015 election as National President, Reardon has led the union and its members in obtaining federal pay increases and, in 2019, overturning a pay freeze. NTEU has successfully fought a number of threats to federal employees and the union's ability to represent employees, while also expanding congressional support for the federal workforce. Reardon has pursued an aggressive legal strategy to protect employees after the cyberbreaches at the Office of Personnel Management, defend a historic legal victory against anti-employee executive orders, and bring an end to federal government shutdowns.

In 2016, President Obama appointed Reardon to the National Council on Federal Labor-Management Relations and the Federal Salary Council.

Reardon graduated from DePaul University in Chicago with a bachelor's in finance. He and his wife, Dawn, have four children and reside in Mount Airy, Md.
