

Frank Krentz

I am the son of Robert and Susan Krentz. I attended the one room Apache School house, attended Animas High School and finished my education with a Masters of Agriculture from New Mexico State University. I have been working the family ranch since returning from school. I am involved with the Apache School board, Malpai Borderlands group, AZ cattle growers, Whitewater draw conservation district and am 1st VP of the Arizona Association of Conservation Districts.