

UNCLASSIFIED

Community Based Force

(Key: 1 Star for every 3 sites)

6

UNCLASSIFIED

Exhibit 1, the National Guard is a Community Based Force

The Adjutants General (TAG) Roles

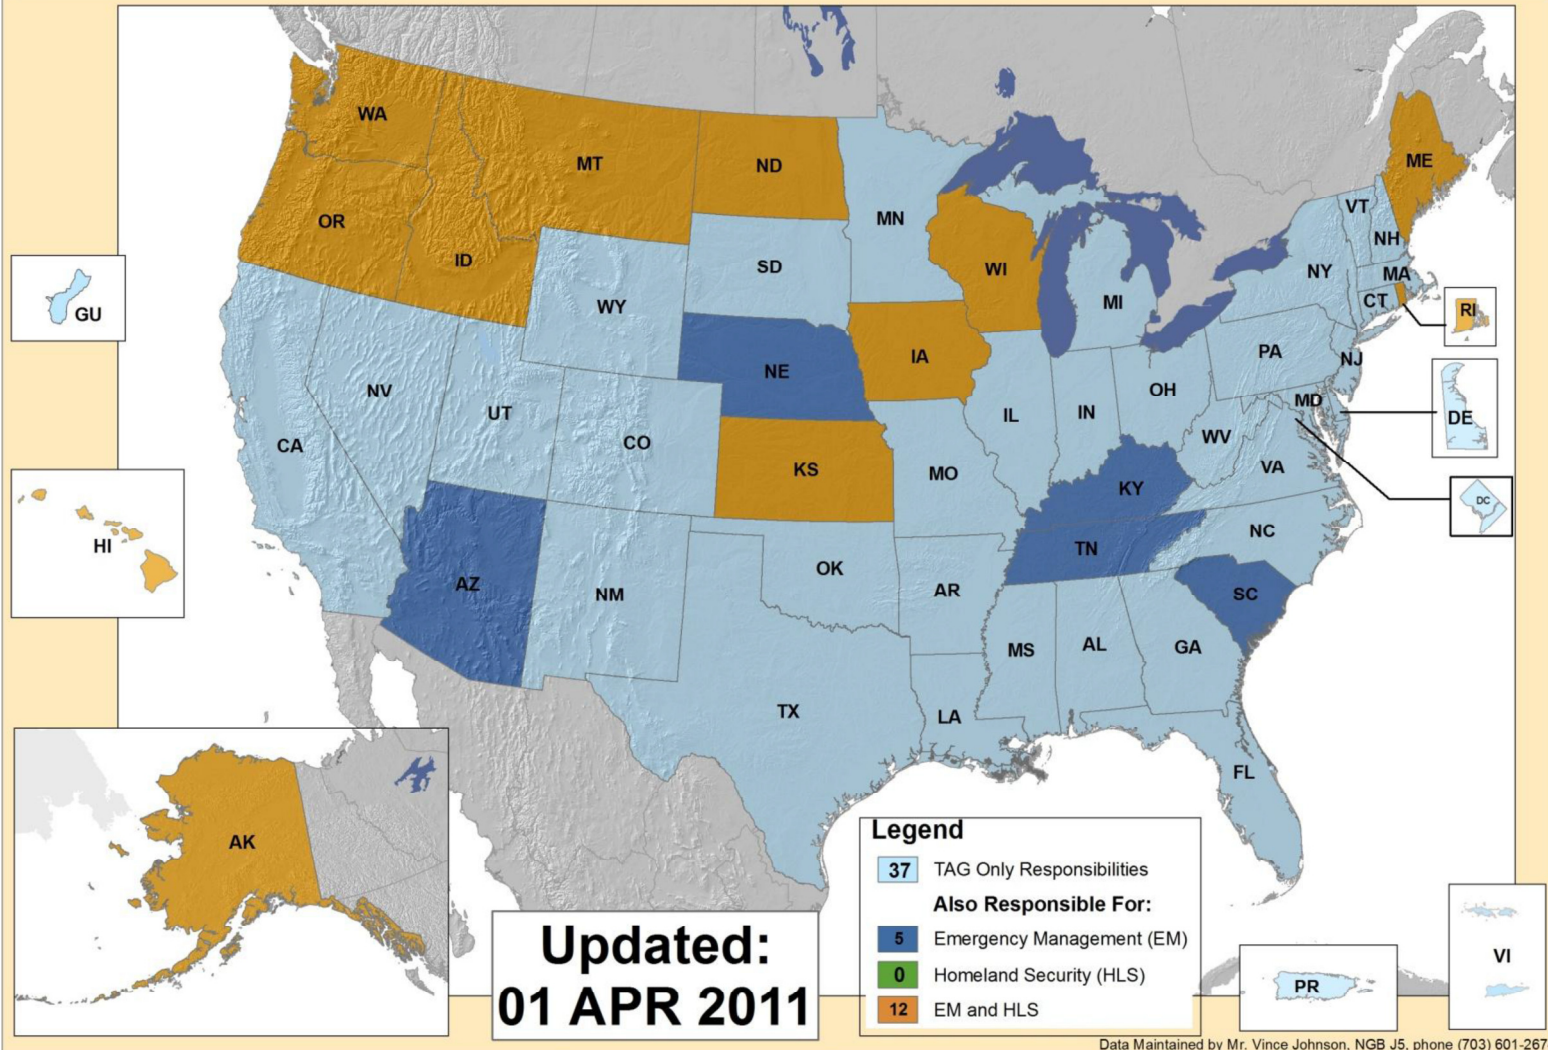

Exhibit 2, the Varied Emergency Management Roles of the Adjutant Generals

Table 2-1. Summary of types of duty status for Army forces

Duty status of Army forces:	State active duty (Component: Army National Guard in state service)	Title 32 (Component: Army National Guard in state service)	Title 10 (Components: Regular Army, activated Army Reserve, and Army National Guard in federal service)
Command:	Governor	Governor	President
Where missions are performed:	Within home state or territory, or in neighboring state according to emergency management assistance compact or state-to-state memorandum of agreement	Within home state or territory, or in neighboring state according to emergency management assistance compact or state-to-state memorandum of agreement	Worldwide
Funding:	State government	Federal government, administered by the state	Federal government
Types of missions:	Assigned by governor, under state law—missions include law enforcement and emergency (incident) response	Assigned by Department of Defense—missions include service for annual training, drills, disaster and law enforcement missions, and other federal military requirements. Title 32 status for incident response requires a disaster or emergency declaration by the President	Assigned by Department of Defense—missions include worldwide training and operations, as assigned by joint force commander
Discipline:	State military code	State military code	Uniform Code of Military Justice
Support for civilian law enforcement:	Yes, direct and indirect support as authorized by the supported governor	Yes, direct and indirect support as authorized by the supported governor	Yes, but strictly limited to indirect support consistent with the Posse Comitatus Act, standing execute orders, and Department of Defense directives and instructions
Authority for determining pay:	State law	Department of Defense Publication 7000.14-R	Department of Defense Publication 7000.14-R
Authority for travel, lodging, and benefits:	State law	Department of Defense travel regulations and public law. See http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/travelreg.cfm	Department of Defense travel regulations and public law. See http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/travelreg.cfm