4 SILIENCE.

5 (a) APPROPRIATION.—In addition to amounts other-
6 wise made available, there is appropriated to the Depart-
7 ment of Commerce for fiscal year 2022, out of any money
8 in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated,
9 $10,000,000,000, to remain available until expended, ex-
10 cept that no amounts may be expended after September 11 30, 2031, to support the resilience, diversity, security, and 12 strength of critical manufacturing supply chains affecting 13 interstate commerce and related administrative costs.

14 (b) PURPOSES.—The amount under subsection (a)
15 shall be available to the Secretary of Commerce for—

16 (1) critical manufacturing supply chain map-
17 ping and monitoring, which may include providing 18 grants and other financial assistance as appropriate

1 to eligible entities for private and public sector-led 2 mapping, monitoring, and forecasting;

3 (2) facilitating and supporting the establish-
4 ment of voluntary standards, guidelines, and best
5 practices to reduce risks to the resilience, diversity,
6 security, and strength of critical manufacturing sup-
7 ply chains;

8 (3) identifying, accelerating, promoting, and 9 demonstrating technological advances for critical 10 manufacturing supply chains; and

11 (4) providing grants and other financial assist-
12 ance as appropriate that support the resilience, di-
13 versity, security, or strength of a critical manufac-
14 turing supply chain to eligible entities for activities
15 that may include enhancements to a domestic manu-
16 facturing facility, process, or practice, the preserva-
17 tion of surge capacity, the provision of goods, or 18 other activities at the determination of the Sec-
19 retary.

20 (c) LIMITATION.—Of the amounts made available
21 under subsection (a), not more than 3 percent may be 22 used for related administrative expenses.

23 (d) ELIGIBLE ENTITY DEFINED.—The term “eligible 24 entity” means—

25 (1) a domestic enterprise;

- 1           (2) a domestic manufacturer;
- 2           (3) a State, local, or Tribal government entity;
- 3           (4) a domestic regional technology and manu-
- 4           facturing hub;
