With regard to Question 5 on the House Energy and Commerce Committee Witness Disclosure Requirement form, please note:

My energy consulting firm Rapidan Energy Group includes some foreign government agencies and state-owned energy companies among its many clients receiving our published data and research notes pertaining to energy markets, policy, and geopolitics. As with all Rapidan's clients, we do not lobby or represent these foreign clients in any way. They are included in the distribution list for Rapidan's data and research products and are entitled to join client conference calls. I am happy to discuss and provide more information if desired.
