1 (a) PRESERVATION OF STATE LAWS.—This Act, and 2 any amendment, standard, rule, requirement, assessment,
3 or regulation promulgated under this Act, does not annul,
4 alter, affect, or exempt any person subject to the provi-
5 sions of this Act from complying with the laws of any 6 State or political subdivision of a State with respect to 7 privacy or consumer protection, except to the extent that 8 those laws are inconsistent with any provisions of this Act,
9 and then only to the extent of the inconsistency. For pur-
10 poses of this subsection, a law of a State or political sub-11 division of a State is not inconsistent with this Act if the 12 protection such law affords any consumer is greater than 13 the protection provided by this Act.
