

AMENDMENT TO DRAFT OVERSIGHT PLAN

Consideration of the Expertise, Legal Authority, and Resources of the FTC

CMT #1

On page 14 at the end of the subsection titled “Federal Trade Commission Management and Operations” insert –

- (1) The Committee will consider what expertise, legal authorities, and resources are currently available to the Commission and what more are needed for it to most effectively enforce its existing privacy and other consumer protection laws, as well as what further legal authorities and resources the Commission may need as additional legislation, including comprehensive privacy legislation moves through the Committee. In so doing, the Committee will examine the impact of actual or threatened budget cuts and personnel reduction to the Commission’s ability to effectively enforce its consumer protection laws.
