PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE –

1978 – Present

From 1977-1978, Worked as a freelance court reporter for Bucks County Court Reporters, in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, where I reported depositions, preliminary hearings and arbitrations.

In 1978, employed as a freelance court reporter in The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, wherein I assisted the federal official court reporters with various assignments and depositions.

During 1983, hired within the District Court as Official Court Reporter to the Honorable Louis H. Pollak, at which time I reported hundreds of trials and hearings including, but not limited to, MDL, antitrust and patent cases, as well as civil and criminal cases

In 1992 when Judge Pollak became Senior Judge, the Honorable J. Curtis Joyner hired me when he joined the federal bench. I have served Judge Joyner to the present time, reporting numerous high-profile cases, including Multidistrict Litigation cases, death penalty cases, notorious criminal cases and a variety of civil cases.
