

William Daley Bio

Bill Daley is the Legislative and Policy Director for the Main Street Alliance, a national network of state and locally-based small business coalitions.

Bill, a California native, received University and post-graduate education in Nevada and Washington before beginning a career that spanned forty years as a policy and legislative expert in Washington State government.

Mr. Daley's government career began in the 1960's as staff for the State Legislature. He held senior policy positions for the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Governor, and the State Liquor Board. He served three years as a Deputy Insurance Commissioner with special responsibilities for health care policy.

In addition to his policy work, Bill served for eight years as a municipal elected official, including a term as Mayor of the City of Olympia.

He began working in non-profit advocacy in 2005 with the Washington Community Action Network on state level health care issues. He has worked for the Main Street Alliance and the Alliance for a Just Society in Washington, DC since 2010.
