

Susan Offutt is Chief Economist of the Government Accountability Office. Before joining GAO in 2007, she spent a decade as Administrator of USDA's Economic Research Service. In previous positions, she directed the National Academy of Sciences Board on Agriculture, served as chief of the agriculture branch at the White House Office of Management and Budget, and held the post of assistant professor at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. She is a past president and fellow of the American Applied Economics Association and edited the Review of Agricultural Economics. Susan has been named a Distinguished Executive of the Federal Senior Executive Service and elected a fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration. Her Ph.D. was awarded by Cornell University.