Gloria L. Jarmon

Deputy Inspector General for Audit Services
Office of Inspector General
Department of Health and Human Services

As Deputy Inspector General for Audit Services, Gloria Jarmon leads more than 600 auditors, analysts, and staff responsible for conducting independent audits of Health and Human Services (HHS) programs and HHS grantees and contractors. The office also oversees non-Federal audit activities, such as quality control reviews of audits of State and local governments, colleges and universities, and nonprofit organizations.

Before becoming the Deputy Inspector General for Audit Services, Ms. Jarmon held a variety of senior executive positions in the Federal Government. Her career includes 15 years with the Government Accountability Office (GAO), where she held several audit leadership positions, including 7 years as GAO's Chief Liaison to Congress. Ms. Jarmon also served as the Chief Administrative Officer at the U.S. Capitol Police and as a Senior Executive in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer at the U.S. Department of Education.

Earlier in her career, Ms. Jarmon was a senior audit manager with KPMG specializing in financial audits of colleges and universities, State and local governments, and other nonprofit organizations. She also taught statistical auditing and other courses as part of KPMG's training program.

Ms. Jarmon has received numerous professional awards. She was awarded the 2017 Outstanding CPA in Government Federal Impact Award by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). Earlier in her career, she was also recognized as a trailblazer by the AICPA in the Journal of Accountancy. She has received GAO's highest award, the Comptroller General's Award for outstanding leadership skills, and HHS's Secretary Award for Meritorious Service for outstanding leadership.

Ms. Jarmon is an honors graduate of the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia; a Certified Public Accountant; and a Certified Government Financial Manager. She is a member of AICPA, the Association of Government Accountants, and the Greater Washington Society of CPAs.
