

Kathryn Larin

Kathryn Larin serves as Director in GAO's Education, Workforce, and Income Security team. Her portfolio covers a broad range of issues affecting low-income and vulnerable populations, including economic and nutrition assistance, child welfare, refugee resettlement, disaster assistance, and elder abuse prevention. Prior to joining GAO, Ms. Larin worked as a Senior Analyst at the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, and served as an Economist at the U.S. Department of Education's Planning and Evaluation Service on postsecondary education issues. She earned a Master's degree in public affairs from Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs and a Bachelor's degree in economics from Swarthmore College.
