

Gregory Zerzan Bio

Gregory Zerzan is a Shareholder in the Pacific Northwest law firm of Jordan Ramis PC. Mr. Zerzan has held several prominent roles in the United States government, including as Deputy Assistant Secretary and Acting Assistant Secretary of the U.S. Treasury, and as Principal Deputy Solicitor of the U.S Department of the Interior. He has also served as counsel to three different congressional committees: Energy & Commerce, Financial Services and Agriculture.

Mr. Zerzan is well versed in financial services laws as well as those relating to energy, the environment and commodity trading. In the private sector he has helped financial market participants comply with both U.S. and international laws relating to derivatives trading. Mr. Zerzan has also served as an adjunct professor for laws schools including the University of Buffalo and the University of Melbourne (Australia).