Kamala Harris met with pro-abortion lawmakers in Pennsylvania over the weekend and essentially said that unborn babies are not “real human beings.”

Harris met with Pennsylvania lawmakers in Philadelphia on Saturday, in a state where there is the potential for a post-Dobbs law protecting babies from abortions if voters elect a pro-life governor to go along with the pro-life state legislature.

Harris joined more than 40 state lawmakers and members of Congress for a roundtable discussion. There, she implied that the only people who are “real human beings” involved in the discussion of abortion and the recent SCOTUS decision are the women who have abortions — completely and totally ignoring the humanity of unborn children.

“We have heard more public recent stories about what this means to real people, real human beings. Not to mention the stories that have not been told and have yet to be told,” Harris said, condemning the Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe.

But 41 quotes from medical textbooks prove that human life begins at conception and that babies before birth are human beings.

“Human life begins at fertilization, the process during which a male gamete or sperm (spermatozoo developmentn) unites with a female gamete or oocyte (ovum) to form a single cell called a zygote. This highly specialized, totipotent cell marked the beginning of each of us as a unique individual.” “A zygote is the beginning of a new human being (i.e., an embryo).”

Keith L. Moore, The Developing Human: Clinically Oriented Embryology, 7th edition.
Philadelphia, PA: Saunders, 2003. pp. 16, 2.

Landrum B. Shettles, M.D., P.h.D. was first scientist to succeed at in vitro fertilization. He adds:“The zygote is human life....there is one fact that no one can deny; Human beings begin at conception.”

Despite these scientific facts, Harris claims killing babies in abortions is a human right.

“The impact of this moment and what so-called leaders are doing in states around our country is having a direct impact on so many people who should have a right to make the most intimate decision that one could make,” Harris said.

Harris called on Senate Democrats to scrap the filibuster temporarily so they can pass a bill to make abortions legal up to birth nationwide. House Democrats passed their version of the bill on Friday.

“I think we all know and applaud our president saying he will not allow the filibuster to get in the way of doing what is necessary in that regard,” Harris said. “Short of that, what happens in terms of recognizing that the court has acted? Now Congress needs to act.”

As LifeNews reported, the Supreme Court has overturned Roe v. Wade, with a 6-3 majority ruling in the Dobbs case that “The Constitution does not confer a right to abortion” — allowing states to ban abortions and protect unborn babies. The high court also ruled 6-3 uphold the Mississippi 15-week abortion ban so states can further limit abortions and to get rid of the false viability standard.

Chief Justice John Roberts technically voted for the judgment but, in his concurring opinion, disagreed with the reasoning and said he wanted to keep abortions legal but with a new standard.

Texas and Oklahoma had banned abortions before Roe was overturned and Missouri became the first state after Roe to protect babies from abortions and South Dakota became the 2nd.

Then Arkansas became the third state protecting babies from abortions and Kentucky became the 4th and Louisiana became the 5th and Ohio became the 6th and Utah became the 7th and Oklahoma became the 8th and Alabama became the 9th. This week, Mississippi became the 10th and South Carolina became the 11th, Texas became the 12th with its pre-Roe law and Tennessee became the 13th.

Michigan, Wisconsin and West Virginia have old pro-life laws on the books but there is question about whether they are applicable and will be enforced.

Ultimately, as many as 26 states could immediately or quickly ban abortions and protect babies from certain death for the first time in nearly 50 years.

“Abortion presents a profound moral question. The Constitution does not prohibit the citizens of each State from regulating or prohibiting abortion. Roe and Casey arrogated that authority. We now overrule those decisions and return that authority to the people and their elected representatives,” Alito wrote.

This is a landmark day for the Pro-Life movement and our entire nation. After staining the moral fabric of our country for nearly 50 years, Roe v. Wade is no more.
