Alexander (Alex) J. Pourbaix

President, Energy and Oil Pipelines

Alex Pourbaix is President, Energy and Oil Pipelines. He is responsible for TransCanada Corporation's non-regulated businesses, including power and non-regulated gas storage, as well as the oil pipeline business.

Prior to his current appointment, Mr. Pourbaix was President, Energy and Executive Vice-President, Corporate Development responsible for TransCanada's non-regulated businesses, as well as acquisitions, divestments and execution of major transactions in both Energy and Pipelines.

He is also responsible for the operation of Cancarb Limited, a carbon black manufacturing business owned and operated by TransCanada and TransCanada Turbines Ltd., the world leader in the aeroderivative gas turbine overhaul and repair business.

Mr. Pourbaix is a director of Trican Well Services Ltd. and sits on the Board of Directors for the Canadian Energy Pipeline Association (CEPA).

Mr. Pourbaix holds a Bachelor of Arts degree, with distinction, and a Bachelor of Law degree from the University of Alberta.

With more than 60 years' experience, TransCanada is a leader in the responsible development and reliable operation of North American energy infrastructure including natural gas and oil pipelines, power generation and gas storage facilities. TransCanada operates a network of natural gas pipelines that extends more than 68,500 kilometres (42,500 miles), tapping into virtually all major gas supply basins in North America. TransCanada is one of the continent's largest providers of gas storage and related services with more than 400 billion cubic feet of storage capacity. A growing independent power producer, TransCanada owns or has interests in over 11,800 megawatts of power generation in Canada and the United States. TransCanada is developing one of North America's largest oil delivery systems. TransCanada's common shares trade on the Toronto and New York stock exchanges under the symbol TRP.
