Commissioner Kristine Raper was appointed to the commission effective February 19, 2015, by Governor C.L. “Butch” Otter for a six year term. Prior to her appointment, Raper served for seven years as a deputy attorney general assigned to the Public Utilities Commission. Raper managed a caseload representing a myriad of regulatory and energy law matters, with a strong emphasis on the federal Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act. Commissioner Raper has defended the Idaho PUC’s decisions at the Idaho Supreme Court, District Court and Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Commissioner Raper currently serves on the Electricity Committee of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC) and is the incoming President of the Western Conference of Public Service Commissioners. She also serves on the Member Advisory Committee of the Western Electricity Coordinating Council (WECC), as part of the EIM Body of State Regulators with the California ISO, and as a member of the Western Interconnection Regional Advisory Body and State Provincial Steering Committee. The commissioner and her husband, Mark, share three children.
