Summary CV

DOUGLAS K. JOHNSON

Vice President, Technology Policy
Consumer Technology Association

Doug Johnson is vice president of technology policy for the Consumer Technology Association (CTA), the trade association representing the $321 billion U.S. consumer technology industry. CTA represents 2,200 companies, 80 percent of which are small businesses and startups. Mr. Johnson is responsible for public policy issues affecting product development, operations, sales and marketing across the consumer technology industry. He serves as an advocate for the industry before regulators and legislators at the local, national and international levels on issues such as energy efficiency, regulatory reform, policy alignment, consumer technology devices on aircraft, and policy concerning the operation of small unmanned aerial vehicles (drones).
