

Kiran Bhatraju

Washington, DC

WORK EXPERIENCE

Arcadia

Washington, DC

Founder & CEO

2014 - Present

- Founded the nation's first digital utility focused on renewable and efficient home energy options for customers in all 50 states

AppHarvest

Morehead, Kentucky

Board Member

2017 - Present

- Serves on the board of AppHarvest, building North America's largest controlled-environment agriculture facilities growing pesticide-free produce

World Wildlife Fund

Washington, DC

National Council

2019 - Present

American Efficient

Washington, DC

Co-Founder, Director of Business Development

2010 – 2014

U.S House of Representatives

Washington, DC

Legislative Assistant

2007 - 2009

- Office of Congressman John Yarmuth (KY-3)

EDUCATION

University of Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Bachelor of Arts (B.A)

2003 - 2007

Pikeville High School

Pikeville, Kentucky

Publications

Mud Creek Medicines: The life of Eula Hall and the Fight for Appalachia (2013)

Awards: Independent Publisher Book Award for U.S. Southeast – Best Regional Non-Fiction