Paul Tonko, Chairman
Subcommittee on Environment and Climate Change

SUBJECT: Joint Subcommittee Hearing on “Keeping Us Safe and Secure: Oversight of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission”

The Subcommittee on Energy and the Subcommittee on Environment and Climate Change of the Committee on Energy and Commerce will hold a hybrid hearing that includes both in-person and remote attendance on Wednesday, July 14, 2021, at 11:30 a.m. (EDT). The hearing is entitled, “Keeping Us Safe and Secure: Oversight of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.” Witnesses will be by invitation only.

This hearing will take place in the John D. Dingell Room, 2123 of the Rayburn House Office Building, as well as remotely using Cisco WebEx online video conferencing. Members will receive WebEx participant access information by email before the hearing. No staff from member offices will be allowed in the Committee room. However, one staffer from each member’s office may join the hearing remotely as an attendee. Each designated staff attendee must register at the provided link by no later than Tuesday, July 13, 2021, at 12 p.m. (EDT). The public may view this hearing via live webcast on the Committee’s website: <http://energycommerce.house.gov>.

For members planning to attend in person, the Committee notes that this hearing is being held during the COVID-19 pandemic, therefore the Committee will adhere to the greatest extent possible to the safety guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Attending Physician of the Capitol. Guidelines regarding the conduct of this hearing were previously distributed.

The bipartisan staff briefing for this hearing will be held using Microsoft Teams on Monday, July 12, 2021, at 3 p.m. (EDT). The Democratic staff briefing will be held immediately following the bipartisan briefing. The Republican staff briefing will be announced separately. Information for these briefings will be sent out later this week.
