Background:

Adrian Carrasco was raised as one of ten children in a small West Texas town. The importance of education was instilled in Adrian and his family and all 10 family members went on to graduate from Midland College and receive 4- year degrees at various Universities. After Graduating from UTSA with a degree in Political Science, Adrian returned to Midland, TX and went to work with Midland College as Recruitment Coordinator and Admissions Director. Adrian was able to attain record enrollment in his first year at MC. Adrian enjoys sales and marketing and was able to work in the Pharmaceutical Industry with companies such as Novartis Pharmaceuticals, Johnson and Johnson, and Novo Nordisk. During his career with Pharmaceuticals, Adrian won various top salesman awards locally, regionally, and nationally. With the downturn in the healthcare industry, Adrian started JTC Construction that specializes in Residential and Commercial construction. After 4 years, Adrian diversified into the Oil and Gas Industry and has been a business owner in this industry over 14 years. Adrian's philosophy in business is to provide a one-stop shop approach with services that will make it easy on the customer. Adrian is always known to be saying "Long lasting customer relationships create long lasting business". The past 6 years Adrian has owned Premier Energy Services LLC. Adrian enjoys spending time with his family, committed to his businesses, committed to his faith, committed to improving higher education opportunities for all, enjoys volunteering, and being involved in the community.
