

Linda Pryor is a third-generation farmer from Henderson County, North Carolina with a strong background in the agriculture industry, and operates Hilltop Farm WNC, LLC along with her husband and father-in-law. The farm spans 1,100 acres with apple orchards, corn, hay, and a small herd of beef cattle. Linda initially pursued a career in dentistry, before transitioning to the family farm full time. As an advocate for agriculture, she is involved in various organizations and boards at the county, state and national levels. Linda serves on the North Carolina Farm Bureau Energy and Transportation Advisory Committee and the American Farm Bureau Federation's Agricultural Labor Issues Advisory Committee.
