

Sarah Miller

President and CEO, GPA Midstream Association; CEO, GPSA Association

In October 2024, Sarah Miller was named President and Chief Executive Officer of GPA Midstream Association, a trade association representing the operators of facilities for the gathering, treating, processing, transportation, fractionation, storage, and export of natural gas, natural gas liquids (NGLs), and crude oil. She is also the Chief Executive Officer of GPSA Association, a trade association representing the suppliers and service providers for midstream operators.

Prior to her employment with GPA Midstream, Ms. Miller was a shareholder and director at the law firm of Hall Estill in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where her legal practice focused on commercial contracting for midstream service companies and producers, construction and procurement contracting, acquisition and divestitures, and corporate governance. While at Hall Estill, Ms. Miller served as GPA Midstream Association's outside legal counsel since October 2019.

Ms. Miller's career also includes 17 years with The Williams Companies Inc., including as the company's Senior Vice President and General Counsel.

Ms. Miller received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Oklahoma State University and a Juris Doctorate from Oklahoma City University. She lives in Tulsa, Oklahoma with her husband Matt and their children Ben, Thomas, and Ellie.