Tom Boucher graduated from Merrimack College with a Bachelor's Degree in 1987. He earned a full academic scholarship to study for his Master's degree, but forwent this opportunity because he fell in love with the restaurant business. Over the next five years, he worked his way up through T-BONES, as a food server, Diningroom Manager, Head Kitchen Manager, and finally to General Manager. Tom was then brought on as partner enabling the opening of Cactus Jack's in 1995. He held the Stores' General Manager position until 1998, when he took on additional responsibilities as the Director of Marketing for T-BONES & CJ's.

Tom's present role as Owner & CEO provides strong leadership and entrepreneurial vision that has guided the Company's 3 restaurant brands totaling 8 restaurants to its current success. He exemplifies the qualities needed to maintain the company's existing fiscal strength and drive future growth. Tom's vision for the company is to become the premier restaurant company in New Hampshire.

Tom serves on numerous boards including:

NH Lodging & Restaurant Association Chairman of the Board, 2004

National Restaurant Association Board of Directors, 2005 - Present

NH Lakes Region Association Board of Directors, 2007 – 2012

Granite State Coalition Against the Expansion of Gambling Board of Directors, 2007 – Present

Tom has received several personal achievement awards including:
