Robert Vito is the Regional Inspector General for the Philadelphia Regional Office of Evaluation and Inspections (OEI). Rob has been with the Office of Inspector General for 36 years. He served as the Regional Inspector General for Region III Office of Evaluation and Inspections since June of 1995. Under his leadership, that office focused considerable effort on program integrity issues in the Medicare program and Medicare and Medicaid prescription drug pricing. His office has been credited with identifying billions of dollars in savings to both the programs and its beneficiaries. He has testified numerous times before various congressional committees and has earned numerous OIG awards. Rob received a BA Degree in Accounting from Villanova University in 1978.
