Glenn Giese is a Principal in the Milwaukee, WI office of Oliver Wyman Actuarial Consulting, Inc. Glenn specializes in actuarial and strategic consulting to health plans. Glenn's work at Oliver Wyman includes design and implementation of managed care and indemnity products for a variety of carriers including start-up HMOs and BCBS organizations. Glenn's work for carriers and providers also includes implementation of Medicare Advantage and managed Medicaid programs, fee negotiation, capitation issues, financial reporting including projections and reserve certifications, and establishing risk sharing arrangements. Glenn also provides risk management solutions to a variety of self-funded health plans.

Glenn has provided actuarial consulting services for over 27 years. Prior to joining Oliver Wyman in 1996, Glenn worked as a Senior Actuarial Analyst in the managed care actuarial unit at Wisconsin Physician Services (WPS). His primary duties included pricing of PPO and POS products as well as developing fee schedules and risk sharing mechanisms for WPS's provider networks.

Glenn has provided services to state regulatory agencies, including Exhibit 8 annual statement life reserve work, the review of rate filings, cost estimates of proposed legislation and audits of the reserves of health entities.
