Congressman Keith Rothfus
Official Biography

Keith Rothfus was sworn in on January 3, 2013 and is serving his first term in the United States House of Representatives. He represents Pennsylvania's Twelfth Congressional District, which includes all of Beaver County and portions of Allegheny, Cambria, Lawrence, Somerset, and Westmoreland Counties in Western Pennsylvania.

As your representative in Washington, Keith is working hard to advocate for policies that grow our economy, foster job creation, reduce our national debt and deficits, support our veterans, and save and secure Medicare and Social Security.

He is committed to providing first-class constituent services. If we can help, please call us.

Keith serves on the Financial Services Committee, House Energy Action Team, and the Republican Policy Committee's Subcommittee on Jobs and Economic Development.

Keith graduated from the State University of New York College at Buffalo with a bachelor of science degree and earned his law degree at the University of Notre Dame.

He spent most of his professional life in the private sector. As an attorney, he helped businesses of all sizes expand and create jobs in Western Pennsylvania.

Keith served as the first director of the Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives at the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). He launched and managed DHS's efforts to coordinate relief services with faith-based and community organizations after natural disasters.

He has served on the Board of Directors of the Veterans Leadership Program of Western Pennsylvania, an organization that provides support services to local veterans and their families.

Keith and his wife Elsie are raising their six kids in Allegheny County.
