

Biography of Scott Faber

Scott Faber is the Senior Vice President for Government Affairs for the Environmental Working Group, a national environmental health research and advocacy organization. Prior to joining EWG in 2012, Faber served as Vice President for Federal Affairs for the Grocery Manufacturers Association. During his tenure as GMA, Faber led GMA efforts to reform federal food and product safety laws. Prior to joining GMA served as a campaign manager for the Environmental Defense Fund. He holds a J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center.