Carmella A. Bocchino
Executive Vice President, Clinical Affairs & Strategic Planning
America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP)

Carmella Bocchino, a registered professional nurse and former hospital administrator, works with the executives of member organizations to develop strategies to streamline health plan operations, reform care delivery and payment models and advance an interconnected health care system.

Ms. Bocchino's clinical and public policy expertise has been widely recognized by national and state lawmakers, policymakers, patient advocacy groups, employers, and throughout the health care community. She has been appointed to numerous private, state, and federal health care advisory committees, including the National Academy of Sciences Institute of Medicine for the Study of the Medicare End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) program; Advisor to the Rand Health Sciences Program for the capitation study for the end-stage renal disease project; the Advisory Committee for Quality Improvement Standards for Managed Care; the Planning Committee establishing the National Quality Forum; and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) ONCHIT Health Information Technology Adoption Initiative Expert Consensus Panel. She also served on the RWJF National Advisory Committee, Project Health Design: Rethinking the Power and Potential of Personal Health Records.

Ms. Bocchino received her Masters in Business Administration from Rutgers University, Graduate School of Management (Newark, NJ). She also has an undergraduate degree in human resources management from Upsala College and a nursing degree from Mountainside Hospital School of Nursing. Prior to her positions in health policy, Ms. Bocchino held administrative and clinical positions in critical care medicine and renal replacement therapy.

America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP) is the national trade association representing the health insurance industry. AHIP's members provide health and supplemental benefits to more than 200 million Americans through employer-sponsored coverage, the individual insurance market, and public programs such as Medicare and Medicaid. AHIP advocates for public policies that expand access to affordable health care coverage to all Americans through a competitive marketplace that fosters choice, quality and innovation.
