(SCREENGRAB, YOUTUBE / CENTER FOR MEDICAL PROGRESS)

The Center for Medical Progress clarified that in its most recent video the baby depicted is from a stillborn birth, not an abortion, but was used to show viewers what the second trimester babies from whom Planned Parenthood is harvesting organs looks like.

In a second identical uploaded video on Thursday to the CMP YouTube page the organization noted that the image is of Walter Fretz, who was born prematurely at 19 weeks. Much of the video features Holly O'Donnell, a former procurement technician, testifying about late term abortion procedures. A previous uploaded video made no mention of the origin of the infant or its circumstances, causing some to allege the pro-life organization was misleading viewers.

CMP linked to the Daily Mail story that offers the particulars of Fretz's delivery by his mother Alexis Fretz, 30, who held the baby in her arms while surrounded by her family.

In a screen grab captured by Think Progress, a liberal political news blog, they shared a message purportedly from Walter's mother, who says she did not agree with CMP's use of Walter's image.

"Yes, the photo at the end of the newest video about Planned Parenthood is Walter," declares Fretz. "No, they did not ask for permission to use the photo and YES that is illegal. No, I am not going to do anything about it. It is not the first time that Walter's photo's have been used without my / our knowledge.

"We are placing our family and Walter in the hands of the Lord. I can spend countless hours worrying about this and scouring the internet or I can trust that in all things, God will protect us and His plan is perfect!" Fretz added.

Lie a little. Lie a lot, that's what anti-choice activists do.

Bob Wierdsma - What is it with you people and your difficulty with understanding what a lie is. Facts you don't like are not lies. Opinions you do not agree with are not lies. Lies are when you nothing something to be a fact and deliberately choose to say something else.

MeToo - The fact is, is that what we are dealing with is a human being that doesn't have a prayer, when Planned Parenthood or some other clinic gets it hand on them. Pro-choicers are the biggest liars of all but choose to turn a blind eye. Having seen a miscarried baby myself - in person - I know what I am talking about.

Bob Wierdsma - You have not mentioned a single lie, not one. Calling people liars when they are not lying is bearing false witness.
