Rick W. Merrill

As president and CEO of Cook Children's Health Care System since 2007, Mr. Merrill has led the Fort Worth Based organization at a time of unprecedented growth; including the historic expansion of Cook Children's Medical Center which nearly doubled the size of the campus to respond to the growing need for its services. Under Mr. Merrill's leadership, Cook Children's began a new era by streamlining its mission and vision into a Promise to improve the health of every child in the region through the prevention and treatment of illness, disease and injury.

As a not-for-profit, nationally recognized pediatric integrated healthcare organization, Cook Children's is comprised of eight entities – a Medical Center, Physician Network, Home Health company, Northeast Hospital, Pediatric Surgery Center, Health Plan, Health Services, Inc., and Health Foundation. With over 1.3 million patient encounters a year, Cook Children's reaches patients throughout all of Texas and over 30 states.

A graduate of Texas Tech University, Mr. Merrill received his Master of Science degree in Health Care Administration in 1984 from Trinity University in San Antonio. For over thirty years, Mr. Merrill has served in leadership roles in large academic/university-based health care systems and both for-profit and not-for profit health care facilities.

Mr. Merrill actively serves on numerous national, state and community advisory boards to include the Children's Hospital Association, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, the Children's Hospital Association of Texas (past Chair), Texas Hospital Association, Texas Association of Voluntary Hospitals (past Chair), the Dallas/Fort Worth Hospital Council (past Chair) and All Saints Episcopal School (Chair).

Married for over 28 years, Mr. Merrill and his wife have two daughters.
