

Amy Bricker, RPh

Senior Vice President, Supply Chain

Responsibilities

Amy is responsible for key relationships and strategic initiatives across the pharmaceutical supply chain. During her ten years at Express Scripts, Amy has held leadership roles in pharmacy network management, supply chain economics, as well as retail contracting and strategy. Her responsibilities include:

- Leveraging the partnerships with pharmaceutical manufacturers and retail pharmacies, the Supply Chain creates value for Express Scripts' clients and keeps medicine within reach of patients.
- In addition to supply chain management, her team has responsibility for developing value-based contracts that address key disease states, such as diabetes and multiple sclerosis.
- In 2017, Amy's team launched Inside Rx, an Express Scripts subsidiary, which is a cash discount card for consumers. Amy Serves as the Chairman of the Board for Inside Rx.

Background

Prior to joining the company, she served Walgreens Health Services as regional vice president of account management. Her earlier retail pharmacy career included positions with BJC Healthcare and Walgreen Company.

In addition to her work at Express Scripts, Amy is a commissioner on the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC), which advises the US Congress on issues affecting the Medicare program.

She and her husband, Todd, live in Chesterfield, MO with their daughters, Addison (14) and Ansley (11).

"Patients are at the center of all we do."

Education

- Bachelor of Science, Pharmacy – St. Louis College of Pharmacy

Contact

One Express Way
St. Louis, Missouri 63121
314.684.6730
www.express-scripts.com