II. EXPLANATION OF LEGISLATION

H.R. 824, the Telehealth Benefit Expansion for Workers Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Walberg (R-MI), would expand upon a COVID-19 flexibility offered by the Departments of Health and Human Services (HHS), Labor, and Treasury that increases the ability of employers to offer stand-alone coverage of telehealth-only services to employees.

H.R. 3226, the Prematurity Research Expansion and Education for Mothers who deliver Infants Early (PREEMIE) Reauthorization Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Eshoo (D-CA), would reauthorize the Prematurity Research Expansion and Education for Mothers who deliver Infants Early Act for fiscal years 2024-2028. This reauthorization would include the renewal of research, education, and intervention activities and programs at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) that focus on preventing preterm births and reducing infant mortality.
- The bill would also authorize a new study on the financial costs of premature births to society, among other things.

H.R. 3838, the Preventing Maternal Deaths Reauthorization Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Burgess (R-TX), would reauthorize federal support for states to address disparities in maternal health outcomes and preserve the health of mothers during pregnancy, childbirth, and the postpartum period for fiscal years 2024-2028.
- The bill would also require the CDC to work in consultation with the HRSA to disseminate best practices relating to the prevention of maternal mortality to hospitals and other health care providers.

H.R. 3843, the Action for Dental Health Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Kelly (D-IL), would reauthorize section 340G of the Public Health Service Act for fiscal years 2024 through 2028.
- This program provides support for the dental health workforce.

H.R. 3884, the Sickle Cell Disease and Other Heritable Blood Disorders Research, Surveillance, Prevention, and Treatment Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Burgess (R-TX), would reauthorize section 1106 of the Public Health Service Act for fiscal years 2024 through 2028.
- This program provides support for research and treatment services for sickle cell disease and other heritable blood disorders.

H.R. 3821, the Firefighter Cancer Registry Reauthorization Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Pascrell (D-NJ), would reauthorize funding for the voluntary registry for firefighter cancer incidents under the CDC for fiscal years 2024 through 2028.

H.R. 2365, the National Plan to End Parkinson’s Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Bilirakis (R-FL), would direct the HHS Secretary to coordinate federal efforts and carry out a national review, assessment, plan, and strategy that involves activities related to the prevention, management, treatment, and cure of Parkinson’s Disease.
- The bill would also require HHS to establish an advisory council to evaluate current efforts, issue recommendations, and evaluate the national plan and strategy related to Parkinson’s Disease.

H.R. 3391, the Gabriella Miller Kids First Research Act 2.0

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Wexton (D-VA), would reauthorize funding for the National Institute of Health’s (NIH) Gabriella Miller Kids First Pediatric Research Program.
- The bill would also require coordinating federal efforts related to pediatric cancer research, as well as a report detailing current federally funded programs and initiatives, and the advancements made.

H.R. 4421, the Preparing for All Hazards and Pathogens Reauthorization Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Hudson (R-NC), would reauthorize current programs to support public health security and all-hazards response, including strategic national stockpile (SNS), biomedical advanced research and development authority (BARDA), and public health emergency medical countermeasures enterprise (PHEMCE).
- The bill also includes provisions aimed at enhancing transparency across the agencies, supporting targeted research into certain medical countermeasures, and streamlining emergency response authorities, among others.

H.R. 4420, the Preparedness and Response Reauthorization Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Hudson (R-NC), would reauthorize certain programs related to the CDC, and includes provisions aimed at efforts to support the distribution of medical countermeasures, control of biological agents and mosquito-borne diseases, and epidemiological monitoring, among others.

H.R. 4529, the Public Health Guidance Transparency and Accountability Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Chair Rodgers (R-WA), would establish public participation requirements prior to finalization or implementation of guidance developed, issued, and disseminated by the CDC.
- The bill would also clarify CDC guidance is nonbinding and does not have the force or effect of the law.

H.R. 4381, the Public Health Emergency Congressional Review Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Murphy (R-NC) and Rep. Guthrie (R-KY), would establish a Congressional review process, similar to that established under the National Emergency Act, in which, not later than six months after a declared Public Health Emergency (PHE), Congress may meet and vote on whether to terminate the PHE.

H.R. 3813, the CDC Leadership Accountability Act of 2023

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Guthrie (R-KY), would require any Director of the CDC appointed by the President on or after June 1, 2023, to be confirmed by the Senate.

H.R. 3836, the Medicaid Primary Care Improvement Act

- The bill, introduced by Reps Crenshaw (R-TX) and Rep. Schrier (D-WA), would clarify that existing Medicaid law does not prohibit the ability of State Medicaid programs to utilize direct primary care as a means to provide primary care services to Medicaid beneficiaries.
- The bill would also task the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services with writing a report to Congress the extent to which such contracting arrangement already exists in Medicaid.

H.R. 4531, the Support for Patients and Communities Reauthorization Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Guthrie (R-KY) would reauthorize key parts of the SUPPORT Act.
- This includes public health programs focused on prevention, treatment, and recovery for patients with substance use disorder, and a permanent extension of Medicaid's required coverage of medication-assisted treatments.

H.R. 4056, the Ensuring Medicaid Continuity for Foster Care Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Bilirakis (R-FL) and Rep. Castor (D-FL), would lift Medicaid's institutions for mental diseases (IMD) exclusion, as it pertains to qualified residential treatment programs (QRTPs) for foster youth.
- The bill would limit the lifting of the IMD Exclusion to only QRTPs that are compliant with the existing guardrails for QRTPs that were established under the Families First Prevention Services Act of 2018.

H.R. 3887, the Children's Hospital GME Support Reauthorization Act

- The bill, introduced by Rep. Crenshaw (R-TX), would reauthorize payments to children's hospitals that operate Graduate Medical Education programs for fiscal years 2024 through 2028.
- The legislation also includes a prohibition on payments to children's hospitals that furnish specified procedures or drugs for minors.
