

Hugh Chancy, RPh, is the Immediate Past President of National Community Pharmacists Association (NCPA). Hugh and his brother co-own Chancy Drugs which consist of six community pharmacies and one closed-door pharmacy located in South Georgia. Chancy Drugs celebrates 59 years of service specializing in compounding, specialty packaging, and enhanced clinical services. Chancy is past president of Georgia Pharmacy Association and currently serves on the boards of the Academy of Independent Pharmacy. He is a graduate of the University of Georgia College of Pharmacy where he received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy in 1988. Hugh's leadership skills make him a powerful force in the independent pharmacy industry, and he uses his tireless energy to motivate others to succeed. Hugh is inspired by his wife and two sons. In his free time, Hugh enjoys golfing, spending time with family and SEC Football as a devoted fan of the Dawgs.