Elevance Health, Inc.

Attachment to Truth in Testimony

5. Grants, Contracts, and Payments

- a. Elevance Health's subsidiaries and/or affiliated health plans provide services under contracts with federal agencies within the scope of topics we expect to be covered during this hearing, including, but not limited to Medicare Advantage, Medicare Supplemental, Part D, Medicaid Managed Care, ACA federally-facilitated exchange, and Fee-for-Service Medicare through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; FEHBP through the U.S. Office of Personnel Management; and the Military OneSource program through the U.S. Department of Defense. If the Committee would like more specific information, Elevance Health would be glad to discuss the nature of that request with the Committee staff at a mutually agreed upon time following the hearing.
- b. At this time, Elevance Health is reviewing our internal records to determine whether there are any applicable contracts or payments from foreign governments. Thus far, Elevance Health has not identified any such applicable records. To the extent that Elevance Health identifies applicable records as part of its ongoing review, Elevance Health intends to supplement its response to this question.
