

Scott Faber is the Senior Vice President of Government Affairs for the Environmental Working Group. Prior to joining EWG, Faber was the Vice President for Federal Affairs for the Consumer Brands Association, formerly known as the Grocery Manufacturers Association. Faber is also an Adjunct Law Professor at Georgetown University Law Center, where he teaches food and farm law.