Bio
Ann Eilers
Principal Assistant Inspector General for Audit and Evaluation
Office of the Inspector General
U.S. Department of Commerce

Ann C. Eilers is a risk management and audit executive with over twenty years of experience in corporate, government, and public accounting audit positions where she provided a mix of board advisory, risk management, internal audit, and attestation services. Currently, she is the Principal Assistant Inspector General for the Department of Commerce, Office of Inspector General. In this role she is responsible for all audit and evaluation oversight activities for the Department.

Previously, Ms. Eilers was the Sr. Advisor and Project Lead for the Commerce OIG Recovery Act Task Force. In this role she was responsible for the start-up of the oversight operations for the approximate $7.9B of funds received by Commerce under the Recovery Act. The task force's work was selected for recognition of their effective oversight through the 2010 Department Silver Medal Award for Personal and Professional Excellence.

Ms. Eilers received a Master of Science in Information and Telecommunication Systems from Johns Hopkins University and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Maryland. She is a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Information Systems Auditor, and a Certified Investments and Derivatives Auditor. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Information Systems Audit and Control Association.
