Additional Questions for the Record

The Honorable Greg Walden

1. If FirstNet requires states to surrender state assets in order to participate in FirstNet, would Maryland be willing to do so?
2. States that opt-out will be subjected to spectrum lease fees and network user fees set by FirstNet. Given that FirstNet has unilateral authority to determine those fees, is there any set of circumstances that would lead you to recommend to your governor that you opt-out?
