Jennifer Bisceglie is an award-winning business owner of Interos Solutions Inc. (Interos) based in Mclean, VA. Interos is a multi-million dollar company that creates comprehensive IT, supply chain, cyber security and risk management solutions for both the public and private sectors, globally. Prior to founding Interos, Jennifer honed her 20 years of supply chain management experience in software and global distribution companies.

The company's Federal government clients include the Department of Energy, the Food and Drug Administration, the Center for Disease Control and Prevention, members of the Intelligence Community, Department of State, U.S. Navy, Defense Logistics Agency, and Customs and Border Protection.

Central to providing relevant solutions for each of the company's clients, Ms Bisceglie understands and weighs in on the trends and issues impacting each of their industries. Jennifer is a National Founding Member of Women Impacting Public Policy (WIPP) and currently serves as Chairman of the Board and sits on the Board of Advisors. She serves on the Executive Logistics Council and is a committee chair for the Cyber Division for National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA); and is a Board member for the International Cyber Discussion (ICD). She has also served on the Board of Directors and as the Awards Chair for the International Society of Logistics Engineers (SOLE).

Outside of her client work, Jennifer is a dedicated small business owner advocate. For her dedication to this cause, she is the recipient of the American Express Open Government Contractor of the Year 2010; Enterprising Women's 2009 Enterprising Woman of the Year award; as well as Washington Business Journal's 2009 Women Who Mean Business award. For her work with WIPP, Jennifer received the 2007 President's Award.

With the global attention to risk within the supply chain as it relates to both resiliency and product integrity, Interos leadership can be found on multiple panels and other speaking venues on the topic. Recently, Ms Bisceglie accompanied a US Congressional Delegation to Taiwan to meet with Japan, Taiwan and US officials on how to mitigate operational and economic risk in the global supply chain.
