Michael Slinger, Director of Google Fiber Cities

Michael joined Fiber in 2012 and is responsible for our Fiber City Organization. The City teams in each metro are responsible for the overall business operations on the ground, including community impact, revenue generation, local government relations, and our retail acquisition teams. Michael joined Google in 2007, and ran our US Mobile Monetization team for his first five years.

Prior to joining Google, Michael worked in Law, Management Consulting, and Banking. After practicing Commercial Litigation, Michael moved on to Management Consulting at Bain & Company, where he focused on Telecom and Financial Services. He then worked in strategy at CIBC before joining Google in California in 2007.

Michael holds a BA, an MBA and an LL.B.
