

Phillip Berenbroick is Counsel, Government Affairs at Public Knowledge.

Prior to joining Public Knowledge, Phillip was the Policy Director at the Internet Freedom Business Alliance, where he advised startups and small businesses on broadband policy.

He has also previously worked as an attorney in the technology, media, and telecommunications practice at Hogan Lovells LLP, as Policy Counsel at the Computer & Communications Industry Association, and as a legal fellow for Representative Zoe Lofgren (D-CA). He also serves as an outside counsel to Sports Fans Coalition.

Phillip is a member of the District of Columbia Bar and the Virginia Bar, and he received his J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and is a graduate of Tufts University.