

Paul J. Boyle
Senior Vice President of Public Policy
Newspaper Association of America

Paul J. Boyle is Senior Vice President of Public Policy for the Newspaper Association of America, the newspaper industry's largest trade organization. NAA has nearly 2,000 member newspapers in the United States and Canada, the majority of which are daily newspapers that account for approximately 90 percent of U.S. circulation.

As the head of the association's legislative and regulatory affairs operation, Boyle represents the newspaper industry on issues such as: the Federal Communications Commission's media ownership rules, tax policy, copyright, postal affairs, advertising regulations, and issues impacting newsgathering and the First Amendment. He has been with NAA in various capacities for more than 25 years.

Prior to joining NAA, Boyle was Director of Government Affairs for Neighborhood Housing Services of America, a nonprofit secondary market for home loans to low-and-moderate-income homeowners, and was on the staff of former Representative Tony Coelho (D-CA).

Boyle is a graduate of the University of California, Santa Barbara.
