Barry C. Ritter, ENP, CMCP

Summary of Experience

Mr. Ritter brings over 30 years of experience in public safety having served as a police officer for over twenty years, four years as director of a consolidated Public Safety Answering Point and the past seven years as the Executive Director of the Indiana Statewide 911 Board. He is a certified Emergency Number Professional (ENP) since 2009 and earned his CMCP certification in 2017.

As the CEO of Indiana's Statewide 911 Board, he is responsible for the management of the state's $84M budget of Public Safety Answering Points and oversight of the Indiana Wireless Direct Network. He has been responsible for the legislative agenda concentrating on modernizing Indiana law to advance NG911 services as a statewide initiative.

Mr. Ritter's expertise in NG911 focuses on planning, implementation and governance, as well as public safety policy development and strategic planning. He has helped develop NG911 public safety policy for state and local government and regulatory matters in the State of Indiana on critical NG911 issues.
