JARED M. CARLSON

ERICSSON EXPERIENCE

Ericsson Inc., Washington, D.C.

Director, Regulatory and Government Relations, July 2007 – March 2016

Vice President, November 2015 – Present

Represent Ericsson before all levels of government in the U.S. and globally on issues relating to spectrum and telecommunications policy, standards, and market access.

Formulate legal and regulatory policy positions, determine appropriate strategies to implement those positions, coordinate with senior management, standards professionals, engineers, legal staff, and marketing experts worldwide, and supervise outside counsel to advocate for Ericsson's regulatory and legislative interests.

- Regularly brief senior Ericsson leadership in North America and Sweden for board meetings, press events, and internal strategy sessions.
- Manage internal experts and outside counsel in 2015-16 to arrive at Ericsson's 5G technical and regulatory positions. Oversee drafting of comments and organize ex parte meetings with FCC staff.
- Serve as Ericsson's chief liaison to the EVOLVE Coalition, an industry group seeking to arrive at unlicensed spectrum solutions acceptable to the Wi-Fi and LTE-U communities.
- Responsible for Net Neutrality issues in U.S. and globally that could affect Ericsson's managed services offerings (e.g., IPTV, enterprise cloud services). Coordinate with standards teams within Ericsson, keep business and technology units up-to-date on developments, and advance Ericsson's positions within industry associations.
- Lead Ericsson's incentive auction political strategy, including organizing with other ICT companies to form the High Tech Spectrum Coalition (HTSC), speaking at public events and internal Ericsson briefing sessions, and drafting comments to the FCC on behalf of Ericsson and the HTSC.
- Led the regulatory and physical/cybersecurity team in various phases of the Ericsson-Sprint network operations contract:

Directed team of Ericsson employees to identify regulatory issues affecting Sprint that would involve Ericsson following contract execution.

Key member of contract negotiations team for portion of the agreement and exhibits that form the scope of Ericsson's and Sprint's obligations with respect to security and compliance with regulatory mandates.

SPRINT NEXTEL EXPERIENCE

Sprint Nextel Corporation, Reston, Virginia

Director, Government Affairs, August 2005 – June 2007

Counsel, Government Affairs, April 2004 – July 2005

- As a key member of Nextel Government Affairs' merger integration team, coordinated with outside counsel and Sprint counterparts to complete filings for regulatory approval of the Sprint Nextel merger. Drafted portions of the Technical Declaration, and the response to the FCC's request for information, working closely with Nextel's subject matter experts.
 - Principal drafter and point of contact for Nextel Government Affairs on all E911 issues. Responsible for filing Nextel's E911 Quarterly Reports with the FCC, and coordinating strategy for addressing the December 31, 2005, 95% A-GPS handset penetration deadline.
