Majority (202) 225-2927

Minority (202) 225-3641

December 13, 2017

The Honorable Jonathan Adelstein
President and CEO
Wireless Infrastructure Association
500 Montgomery Street; Suite 500
Alexandria, VA 22314

Dear Mr. Adelstein:

Thank you for appearing before the Subcommittee on Communications and Technology on Thursday, November 16, 2017, to testify at the hearing entitled "The Race to 5G and its Potential to Revolutionize American Competitiveness."

Pursuant to the Rules of the Committee on Energy and Commerce, the hearing record remains open for ten business days to permit Members to submit additional questions for the record, which are attached. The format of your responses to these questions should be as follows: (1) the name of the Member whose question you are addressing, (2) the complete text of the question you are addressing in bold, and (3) your answer to that question in plain text.

To facilitate the printing of the hearing record, please respond to these questions with a transmittal letter by the close of business on Friday, January 5, 2018. Your responses should be mailed to Evan Viau, Legislative Clerk, Committee on Energy and Commerce, 2125 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515 and e-mailed to Evan.Viau@mail.house.gov.

Thank you again for your time and effort preparing and delivering testimony before the Subcommittee.

Sincerely,

Marsha Blackburn
Chairman
Subcommittee on Communications and Technology

cc: The Honorable Michael F. Doyle, Ranking Member, Subcommittee on Communications and Technology

Additional Questions for the Record

The Honorable Gus Bilirakis

1. An Accenture report concluded that municipalities can attract investment across industries by facilitating 5G infrastructure. As you mention in your testimony, a handful of states, including Florida, have taken action to quicken 5G deployment. Have these states begun to see the benefits of their actions in telecom operator investments?
 - a. Is there any state action that specifically stands out as a model that we should consider for federal action?
