

DAVID S. GOLDMAN

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- SPACE EXPLORATION TECHNOLOGIES INC. 05/2018 - Present
Senior Director, Satellite Policy
Director of regulatory policy for SpaceX, leading efforts on licensing at U.S. federal agencies, international regulatory bodies, and foreign governments. Guide company strategy on regulatory matters relating to SpaceX's Starlink satellites network, including spectrum access and coordination.
- U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, ENERGY & COMMERCE COMMITTEE, 01/2015 - 05/2018
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CHIEF COUNSEL FOR COMMUNICATIONS AND TECHNOLOGY
Primary advisor on telecommunications and technology policy for Democratic members of the U.S. House. Provide members expertise to assist with oversight of the Federal Communications Commission, the National Telecommunications and Information Administration, and parts of the Department of Homeland Security.
- Primary advisor in the development of telecommunications and technology policies for new lead Democrat for the Energy and Commerce Committee.
 - Lead negotiator for several legislative efforts, such as The Spectrum Pipeline Act, which was included in the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015; The DOTCOM ACT, which overwhelmingly passed the U.S. House; a broadband deployment bill, which unanimously cleared the Telecommunications Subcommittee; and the FCC Process Reform Act, which unanimously cleared the U.S. House.
- FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION, WASHINGTON, DC 08/2012 - 01/2015
OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER JESSICA ROSENWORCEL
SENIOR ADVISOR
Chief advisor on issues of policy, strategy, public relations, and office operations. Special responsibility for devising policy relating to wireless, public safety, engineering, and international communications, mergers and acquisitions, and enforcement and investigations relating to industry compliance with FCC regulations. Draft speeches, policy statements, and press releases. Principal liaison with other government officials, including administration and Congressional staff, reporters, and investment analysts.
- Counseled Commissioner on legal and policy issues relating to incentive auctions and auction of AWS-3 spectrum.
 - Provided guidance relating to public safety issues, including the First Responder Network Authority.
- U.S. SENATE COMMITTEE ON COMMERCE, SCIENCE, & TRANSPORTATION, 05/2011 - 08/2012
WASHINGTON, DC
COMMUNICATIONS COUNSEL (DETAILED FROM FCC)
Advised committee staff on issues related to wireless, wireline, media, public safety, and international communications policy. Provided expertise to assist the committee's oversight of the Federal Communications Commission.
- Successfully advised committee staff through the drafting, mark up, conference negotiations, and eventual passage of Title VI of the Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act.
 - Successfully advised committee during confirmation of two FCC Commissioners.
- FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION, WASHINGTON, DC 10/2007 - 05/2011
WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU
POLICY ADVISOR TO THE BUREAU CHIEF (08/2010 - 05/2011)
Advisor to the bureau chief and operating divisions on legal and policy matters relating to wireless broadband, spectrum auctions, technology convergence, and corporate mergers. Primary liaison with the Chairman's office and other Commissioners' offices. Crafted press releases, statements, and speeches for the bureau chief.
- Led teams that negotiated the rules that the Commission adopted for issues such as data roaming, the Mobility Fund reverse auction, signal boosters, and wireless backhaul.

OFFICE OF CHAIRMAN JULIUS GENACHOWSKI
LEGAL ADVISOR (DETAILED) (07/2009 – 08/2010)

Advised Chairman and staff on various communications policy and legal issues, with particular responsibility for wireless communications, public safety, and engineering.

SPECTRUM AND COMPETITION POLICY DIVISION, WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU
HONORS ATTORNEY (10/2007 -07/2009)

Advised agency clients on legal and policy matters such as those related to Verizon Wireless-ALLTEL merger, Sprint-Clearwire merger, 700 MHz spectrum auction, and open access rules.

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT, CHICAGO, IL
STAFF LAW CLERK

08/2005 – 08/2007

Performed legal research and drafted opinions on civil and criminal matters for all circuit court judges.

HUGHES HUBBARD & REED LLP, NEW YORK, NY ASSOCIATE

08/2003 – 04/2005

Litigated mass products liability cases with special emphasis on regulatory concerns for pharmaceutical clients. Advised clients on copyright and trademark issues.

EDUCATION & TRAINING

Juris Doctor, University of Pennsylvania Law School, 2003
Bachelor of Science, Psychology, University of Florida, 1997
(Minor in Business Administration)

Certificate of Study in Public Policy, The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania
Graduate with Honors, University of Florida

AWARDS & DISTINCTIONS

Leadership in Regulatory Service Award, APCO International
Member, Federal Communications Bar Association
Chair, Wireless Committee, Federal Communications Bar Association
Co-Chair, Professional Responsibility, Federal Communications Bar Association