

Tim DonovanPresident & CEO, Competitive Carriers Association

Tim Donovan serves as President and CEO of Competitive Carriers Association (CCA), the nation's leading association for competitive wireless providers and stakeholders across the United States. CCA's members range from small, rural carriers serving fewer than 5,000 customer to regional and nationwide providers serving millions of customers, as well as vendors and suppliers that provide products and services throughout the wireless communications ecosystem. As the highest-ranking executive, Tim leads association advocacy and operations, including with government entities, press, membership, and the general public.

Prior to serving as President and CEO, Tim served as CCA's Senior Vice President of Legislative Affairs. In this role, he led efforts to successfully achieve important policy initiatives and frequently testified before Congress as an expert witness on behalf of CCA.

Tim previously worked at the Direct Marketing Association and holds a bachelor's degree from Providence College in English with a minor in Political Science.
