

Mike Rehwinkel (Curriculum Vitae)

EVRAZ North America 2010-Present

▪ President and CEO

Steel manufacturer with $4 billion in revenue and the capacity to produce more than five million tons annually of flat, long and tubular products, primarily for infrastructure-related markets.

4500 employees operating 16 steel manufacturing plants at eight locations, as well as 18 recycling facilities.

Leading producer of rail and large diameter pipe in North America with a significant position in plate and OCTG pipe as well.

Before joining EVRAZ:

Georgia Pacific 2000-2009

▪ President Wood Products 2006-2009

$3.5 billion revenue, 60 mills and 13,500 employees at its peak.

Lead the team during transition from public to private company and through buying/selling major business unit while maintaining focus on the market and mill improvement efforts.

▪ Senior Vice President Packaging 2003-2005

Operations of 56 facilities with diverse products, known as one of the top performing packaging organizations in the industry.

Regional Vice President, Color Box 2000-2002

Pactiv LLC 1998-2000

▪ CFO Sentinal Polyolefins

MidAmerican Packaging 1997-1998

▪ General Manager

International Paper 1977-1997

- Various operations management and financial or accounting roles, including Mill Analyst, Manager Financial Analysis, General Manager of Packaging facilities, Regional Manager Liquid Packaging and Resident Manager Aseptic.

Education

BS in Accounting, William Carey University, Mississippi

Advanced Management Program, Duke University, North Carolina