Jonathan Gold
Vice President, Supply Chain & Customs Policy
National Retail Federation

Jonathan Gold serves as Vice President, Supply Chain and Customs Policy for the National Retail Federation. Jonathan joined NRF in October 2007 and is responsible for representing NRF before Congress and the administration on supply chain, customs, transportation, product safety, international trade and loss prevention issues impacting the retail industry.

Prior to joining NRF, Jonathan served as a Policy Analyst in the Office of Policy and Planning for U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). Jonathan was responsible for giving policy guidance on issues surrounding maritime cargo security and trade related matters.

Prior to joining CBP, Jonathan served as the Vice President, Global Supply Chain Policy for the Retail Industry Leaders Association. He was responsible for representing the association before Congress and the Executive Branch on various international trade and supply chain issues. Jonathan previously served on the Departmental Advisory Committee on Commercial Operations of Customs and Border Protection and Related Homeland Security Functions (COAC) and the Department of Commerce International Trade Advisory Committee (ITAC) for Distribution Services.

Jonathan graduated from The American University in Washington, DC in 1994.
